

FOWEY Funnybone Youth Theatre's latest production was The Magic Boots. The show was written specially for the company by John Vincent who has played the dame for the group many times in recent years. The plot follows traditional lines with the hero having to rescue the princess with the aid of the magic boots, coming across obstacles along the way. The cast is pictured above. Picture: Jonathan Barker.